

Hi everyone!

Online learning is off to an amazing start and we can't begin to thank you for making this transition so seamlessly and gracefully. As you begin navigating remote teaching, you may find that some students would benefit from additional online instruction. To best meet this need, we suggest using ZOOM. ZOOM is an online group meeting place that is similar to FaceTime, but with several participants and "teacher controls". It affords teachers the ability to provide small group instruction from the comfort of their own home. If you did not have an opportunity to join one of our live Zoom tutorial sessions during the past week, we have pre-recorded tutorial video links below.

Pre-recorded: Zoom tutorial link: <https://web.microsoftstream.com/video/b06f0bf2-3e54-47f5-b9a3-47c10663ddb5>

Pre-recorded: How to post Zoom Recordings Online Link:
<https://web.microsoftstream.com/video/e8b5a487-d64f-4ff4-8f1d-428ff0891bb6>

Pre-recorded Security Updates video: <https://web.microsoftstream.com/video/d401533f-887b-4dba-8282-47d7b4406625>

If you have attended a live session or watched the Zoom tutorials, but have additional questions we have several resources available to you. There is a Zoom Checklist on the curriculum site that provides detailed instructions for setting up your Zoom account, scheduling a meeting, and posting a recording online. Christin Keeney, our Zoom guru, will also hold open Question and Answer sessions daily at 10 am. You can reach those sessions by clicking on the following link:

<https://us04web.zoom.us/j/5393098925>

If you would like a more immediate answer, please do not hesitate to reach out to Stephanie Thetford or Christin Keeney via email.

Whether you attended a live training or a recorded session, please take a minute to review the updated Zoom security settings document on the curriculum site. These features will ensure a safe and secure Zoom meeting experience.

Happy Zooming!