

NHS Students Perform at All-County Chorus Concert

Fifty-two students from the Niceville High School Chorus performed with the annual Okaloosa All-County Chorus Concert held at Northwest Florida State College's Mattie Kelly Arts Center on October 22, 2018. The senior high choir included 125 chorus students who were selected from each high school in Okaloosa County. Students practiced with other singers from Backer, Crestview, Choctaw, and Fort Walton Beach High Schools in the weeks leading up to the concert. The guest conductor was Dr. James Brown, Assistant Professor of Choral Music at Troy University's John M. Long School of Music. The pianist for the all-county choir was Professor Lois Henry of Northwest Florida State College. The Niceville High School Choral Music Department is directed by Michael Dye.
